Local Contest searches for the Top 10 Alberta Family Friendly Businesses

Moms across Alberta have NO TIME to PLAN and are FRUSTRATED they can't Find Family Friendly Business!

Edmonton, AB – Local Mompreneur, Kimberly Schick-Puddicombe, CEO, Publisher and Fun Finder of The 'Little Black Book' for busy families™ is running a one of a kind contest called "Fun-Finding across Alberta" searching for the best family friendly adventures, places and businesses.

"At this point in the Summer Holidays Moms everywhere are running out of ideas what to do with the kids. They have no time to research or flip thru the countless brochures to find cool thing to do for the day" says Schick-Puddicombe. "They want unusual, out of the ordinary tips and places to go that don't cost an arm and a leg."

So her business Moms, Dads and Kids™ is compiling and searching for fresh, funky out of the box ideas of how families find fun. She is writing a book called The 'Little Black Book' for busy families™ which will be the ultimate family resource guide from pregnancy to Tweens and it will be on store shelves this fall. Moms are Pre-ordering their copy at <http://www.momsdadsandkids.com> so they can make life simple.

Fun-Finding across Alberta is really an opportunity for Albertans to submit their best ideas that are FREE and Affordable. So Moms, Dads and Kids™ are searching for the TOP 10 Fabulous Family Friendly Business across Alberta. By submitting your family favorites you could win from a multitude of fantastic prizes from our sponsors. For a list of Contest Information & details as well as some of the trendy prizes up for grabs <http://www.momsdadsandkids.com/free-stuff.php>
